

JUNIOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Colville Park Golf Club is dedicated to creating an environment that nurtures the enjoyment and enthusiasm of every member within our club.

We want to empower our juniors to base their conduct on a sense of personal integrity and acceptance of rules, fairness, equality, respect for others, moral conduct and a sense of what is right.

I agree to:

- Be friendly and supportive, offering help if needed
- Practice and participate fairly and be trustworthy
- Behave with respect towards coaches/volunteers, club staff, officials, other golfers, parents, team managers and spectators
- Respect the rules of my club and those of the facilities
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, disability, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity
- Always strive to do my best and refrain from inappropriate conduct towards others including physical, verbal, written or emotional behaviour, in person or through social media
- Be a positive role model and refrain from bullying or inappropriate peer pressure
- Set a good example at all times in punctuality, language, behaviour and respect of equipment and others
- Report inappropriate behaviour or risky situations to a member of staff

Breaches of the Junior Code of Conduct will be dealt with in accordance with the club's disciplinary procedures.

It is also important to note that the code of conduct also applies to any guests signed on, meaning should you invite a guest to play the course, you will be responsible for ensuring they understand the standards of behaviour expected.

I understand that if I do not follow the Junior Code of Conduct, any or all of the following actions may be taken:

- Receive a warning either verbal or written
- Be suspended by the club
- Be required to leave the club
